

ZHEJIANG LIANCHENG WOOD GROUP

Established in 1983, Zhejiang Liancheng Timber has specialized in the hardwood flooring industry for over 40 years. With two manufacturing facilities—Fulailai Timber and Huijieli Timber—we focus on the research, development, and manufacturing of premium engineered hardwood flooring and solid hardwood flooring.

Backed by more than 100 patented innovations, our production is certified under FSC®, CE, and ISO management systems, ensuring internationally recognized quality and sustainable manufacturing standards.

Our core business includes OEM & private label manufacturing, as well as custom flooring solutions for large-scale commercial and residential projects. From brand customization and real estate developments to hospitality and commercial spaces, we provide comprehensive, one-stop flooring supply solutions tailored to our customers' needs.
